Continuing Education Credit: Process Improvement

Continuous process improvement (CPI) is "just the way we do things" here at Sharp HealthCare. Engaging the entire care team in process/practice improvement is critical to our success and sustainability.

Performance Improvement CME

Earn AMA PRA Category 1 Credits by engaging in a performance improvement project.

This is the same type of credit you earn by attending grand rounds, a case conference, or webinar - it counts toward your annual CME requirement, required of all physicians licensed in California.

Maintenance of Certification Part 4 (MOC - Part 4)

Earn MOC - Part 4 credit by engaging in a performance improvement project.

This credit type is specific to those physicians credentialed by a medical specialty board such as the ABIM, ABA, ABP, etc. Each board sets its own standards. It's important to be familiar with yours.

Key Items

1. Must submit application to CME Department during first stage of project (stage A).
2. Must engage in stage A to be eligible for credits in stage B and stage C.
3. Each stage is 5 AMA PRA Category 1 credits. Bonus: 5 credits for completing all three stages.
4. Record of earned credits are available in CME Portal transcript - up to 20 credits.

Key Items

1. Must submit application to CME Department before project ends.
2. Eligibility to earn MOC - Part 4 credit is based on meaningful participation criteria, you can enter a project at any point.
3. Know how your board tracks credit - each is different.
4. Record of earned credits are posted directly to your board. No record is available in CME Portal.
